ROSALIND E. GRIFFIN, M.D. APPOINTED TO ATTORNEY DISCIPLINE BOARD

LANSING, MI, July 29, 2008 – The Michigan Supreme Court today announced that it has appointed Rosalind E. Griffin, M.D., of Farmington Hills to the Attorney Discipline Board.

Griffin, a psychiatrist who also served on the Attorney Grievance Commission from 1990-94, will serve a term ending Oct. 1, 2010.

The ADB appoints three-attorney panels, composed of volunteers, which hear attorney misconduct matters and recommend sanctions against attorneys who violate ethics rules. The ADB also may review a hearing panel's decision and can affirm or alter the level of discipline. An ADB order of discipline or dismissal may be appealed to the Michigan Supreme Court.

The ADB consists of six attorneys and three non-attorneys appointed by the Michigan Supreme Court; the appointees serve on a volunteer basis.
